I. Reason for Visit

Mr. John Smith presented for a routine dental examination and cleaning. He reported mild sensitivity in his upper right molar and a desire for a general assessment of his oral health.

II. Medical History

- Allergies: No known allergies
- Medications: None reported
- Previous Dental Procedures:
  - Filling on upper left molar (2018)
  - Wisdom teeth extraction (2019)
- Medical Conditions:
  - No significant medical history
  - No history of hypertension or diabetes

III. Dental Examination Findings

1. Visual Examination:

- Extraoral Examination: No abnormalities noted. Symmetrical facial features, no swelling or tenderness.
- Intraoral Examination:
  - Gums: Healthy, no signs of inflammation or bleeding upon probing.
  - Teeth:
    - Upper right first molar (tooth #3): Mild sensitivity noted. No visible caries, but marginal decay suspected.
    - Upper left first molar (tooth #14): Previous filling intact, no further treatment needed.
    - Lower teeth: No caries or sensitivity noted.
  - Occlusion: Normal occlusion observed. No signs of bruxism.

2. Radiographic Examination:

- Full mouth X-rays taken.
- Findings:
  - Tooth #3 exhibits slight radiolucency indicative of potential decay under the existing enamel.
  - All other teeth appear healthy, with no signs of periapical pathology or bone loss.
